

I will make this short as I hope you recieve many of these notes. I am absolutly against any interference from the government in XM radio. I can not see any decent reason to make them stop offering these services of weather and traffic. This is fair compitition and there are many that will keep supporting local radio stations. Please keep your hands out of this new technology,